

The Rhaus Institute proudly presents...
A benefit for local Solar Schoolhouse projects.

In collaboration with the Sebastopol Grange, Solar Schoolhouse, Solarize Sebastopol, 350 Sonoma County, and Transition Sebastopol Energy Group.

CATCHING THE SUN

Wednesday, April 27th

Catching the Sun follows the hope and heartbreak of unemployed American workers seeking jobs in the solar industry and sheds light on the path to an economically and environmentally sustainable future. Through personal stories that illuminate the universal theme of hope for a better life, and set against the struggle to build a 'green economy,' Catching the Sun will engage new audiences in solutions to climate change and income inequality.

Location:

Sebastopol Grange, 6000 Sebastopol Ave,
Hwy 12., Sebastopol, CA

Date & Time:

Wednesday, April 27, 2016, 7p.m.
75 minutes followed by 30 minute discussion

Tickets:

$5 for tickets pre-purchased at solarschoolhouse.org/ctssebastopol

$10 at the door.

“Award-winning filmmaker and eco-activist Shalini Kantayya’s documentary broadens the often faceless climate change debate to include people of color and explore the possibilities of social and economic justice in a soon-to-be solar-powered world.”

—Julie Anderson
LA Film Festival

